Wildcat's Newsletter (CAT FLAP) re recent visit to South Sudan by CEO Mandhir Singh and Country Manager, Dr. Omar

Apologies for the delay in the quarterly Cat Flap newsletter which was due on the 1st Sept. The management were engaged in talks with the South Sudanese Ministry of Petroleum in Juba.

The Company is happy to announce that a MOU was signed between Nilepet and Wildcat in respect to the oil and gas assets PETRONAS relinquished on the 7th August (RNS 17/09/24).

These assets cover stakes in 6 producing oil Blocks.

The Company is happy to announce that it has the support of the relevant government departments connected with the South Sudanese oil industry and looks forward to working closely with Nilepet.

We enclose some pictures from WCAT's recent trip to Juba, South Sudan:
